Do Small Things In A Great Way

By: Jon Ledbetter

“If you cannot do great things, do small things in a great way”. This inspirational quote was penned by the late American self-help author Napoleon Hill. It reminds us that not everyone can be a professional athlete, CEO of a major corporation or President of the United States of America, but we can make a difference in the world around us by putting forth effort in the small things we can do. The Apostle Paul gave Christians similar advice in Colossians 3:23 when he said, “And whatever you do, do it heartily, as to the Lord and not to men”.

So many people are concerned with what they aren’t able to do instead of placing their focus and attention on the things they can do. The Corinthian church was no different as indicated in 1 Corinthians, chapter 12. Paul is trying to explain to these brethren that the church is made up of people with different abilities. Instead of everyone wanting to fill the “bigger” and “greater” roles in the church, Paul said they need to use their unique skills to fill the roles God had intended for them. Just like the human body has many different parts that all have unique, essential functions, so likewise the church of God is made up of many unique and essential skills and talents. The human body cannot function without all its different parts doing their duties. So also the church cannot function without all its different members doing their duties.

You may not be able to do great things for the Lord, but you can do the small things He designed you for in great ways. In fact, that’s how the Lord does great things! (2 Cor. 12:9-10)
